

Free Digital SAT practice: where to start

For students taking the SAT in 2027. Everything on this page is free.

The test, in one paragraph

The SAT is taken on a laptop or tablet in College Board's Bluebook app. Reading and Writing: 54 questions in 64 minutes. Math: 44 questions in 70 minutes, calculator allowed on every question, Desmos built in. A 10-minute break in between. Each section has two modules, and how you do on the first module decides whether the second is harder or easier. Scores run from 400 to 1600.

Step by step

1. Download Bluebook and take a full practice test. Free, timed, adaptive and scored, like the real test. There are eight official practice tests. Review every question afterward in My Practice.

2. Practice your weakest skills. The Student Question Bank has thousands of official questions you can filter by skill and difficulty. After a practice test, try Tailored Practice in My Practice.

3. Get lessons and help. Official SAT Prep on Khan Academy has free lessons by skill. Schoolhouse.world offers free small-group peer tutoring.

4. Take another practice test about two weeks later. Compare skill by skill. Take your last one at least two weeks before test day.

Calculators

- Calculators with CAS are not allowed (for example TI-Nspire CX II CAS, TI-89, HP Prime). If "CAS" is in the name, leave it home.
- TI-84 Plus CE and TI-Nspire CX II (no CAS) are fine.
- No calculator? Desmos is built into the test. Practice with it free:

Practicing on paper

- College Board's official tests are also free as PDFs. College Board recommends them only for students testing with paper-based accommodations, since they don't adapt.
satsuite.collegeboard.org/practice/practice-tests/paper
- SAT Owl offers three free printable full-length Digital SAT practice tests with answer keys, including both versions of each second module, plus free online scoring. The questions are original, not official, so take Bluebook tests first.

Tips that help most: take each practice test in one sitting with real timing. For every miss, write down why the wrong answer looked right. Guess on every question, since there's no penalty for wrong answers.
